MESSAGE FROM THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

Welcome to Auckland University of Technology (AUT).

We are delighted that you have chosen to study at New Zealand's youngest and most dynamic university. With three modern campuses, and almost 30,000 students from 107 countries, AUT has a vibrant and diverse community.

Based in Auckland, Aotearoa New Zealand's largest and most international city, we are a modern and innovative university highly regarded for our international outlook, research and teaching. International students, like you, are an incredibly important part of AUT and now that our borders have reopened, we are excited to be able to welcome you back onto our campuses.

At AUT our mission is to create great graduates. We work hard to offer a welcoming environment where people love to learn. We aim to approach students holistically, offering exceptional learning experiences, while supporting student wellbeing and providing student services and opportunities that support and inspire people from a vast range of diverse backgrounds and countries.

We are the only New Zealand university ranked both among the top 1% of universities in the world and in the top 50 universities under 50 years of age, offering over 250 undergraduate and postgraduate programmes. Many of our subject areas are world-ranked, and our graduates are highly employable nationally and internationally. AUT is home to world-class academics called on for their research expertise – here and all over the world, making AUT the leader in global research impact in Australasia.

We are facing a rapidly changing future where creativity, curiosity and collaboration will only become more vital. Our focus is to inspire, nurture and help every single one of our students find their greatness.

I look forward to having you join us and I wish you every success for the years ahead.

Ngā manaakitanga (With best wishes)

Professor Damon Salesa
Vice-Chancellor
